

Adventurer Opens a Dynamic Advisory Solutions Office in Ann Arbor, Michigan

Troy, MI, August 9, 2010 ---. Dynamic Advisory Solutions (DAS) announced today that it will open its second office in Ann Arbor, Michigan. Experienced business professional and savvy outdoor adventurer Rob Marshall will serve as Managing Director of the Ann Arbor office. Rob holds an MBA from Duquesne University and has extensive management experience in the Pharmaceutical and Medical Device Industry.

“Ann Arbor is a great location for a DAS office” commented Marshall. “The region has a rich entrepreneurial community. We are excited for the opportunity to help both growing and struggling businesses achieve their financial goals.”

Rob Marshall is no stranger to challenging situations. He is both an avid marathon runner and high altitude climber. Marshall’s conquests include Mt Rainier, Kilimanjaro and base camp of Mt Everest in Nepal. Marshall is comfortable using the knowledge he’s obtained through personal experiences and applies them to the professional world. Rob also participates in a number of local charitable organizations, including the Food Gatherers Community Kitchen and the Meals on Wheels Organization.

“Rob is a sharp business professional and a great guy” stated Ren Carlton, CEO of Dynamic Advisory Solutions. I am thrilled he is part of our team and I am sure he will do great”.
